Introducing Hemingways Watamu

Set along the palm-fringed shores of Turtle Bay, Hemingways Watamu offers a true beachfront setting within the protected Watamu Marine National Park. Ideal for meetings, incentives, and retreats, the hotel combines coastal beauty with easy access to swimming, snorkelling, and coral reef exploration.

All 39 spacious rooms enjoy uninterrupted views of the Indian Ocean, while 21 private residences offer one to four bedrooms for added space and privacy. Interiors reflect relaxed coastal elegance, creating a refined atmosphere for delegates and guests alike. Between sessions, guests can unwind by the pool, enjoy tailored spa treatments, or dine at the ocean-facing restaurant, where fresh seafood and local ingredients take centre stage. The iconic Hemingways Bar offers a characterful spot to gather at sunset. As with every Hemingways property, service is warm, intuitive, and deeply personal.
